

JOSEPH LEIGH TERRY, PH.D.

Lecturer, Department of Communication

University of New Hampshire

Horton Social Science Center

20 Academic Way

Durham, NH 03824-3586

Phone: 603.205.0916 | Email: joseph.terry@unh.edu

EDUCATION

Ph.D., University of Colorado at Boulder, May 2013.

Journalism and Mass Communication (Media Studies)

Advisor: Dr. Andrew Calabrese

Committee Members: Dr. Lynn Schofield Clark (University of Denver), Dr. Timothy Oakes, Dr. Janice Peck, Dr. Elizabeth A. Skewes

Dissertation: Policy for Culture's Sake? Cultural Theory, Popular Music, and the Canadian State

M.A., University of Georgia, August 2004.

Grady College of Journalism and Mass Communication

Advisor: Dr. James Hamilton

Committee Members: Dr. Dwight Brooks and Dr. Elli Lester Roushanzamir

Thesis: State of Independence? A Political Economic Analysis Questioning the Conceptualization of Independent Labels in the Popular Music Industry, 1980-2000

B.S., University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, May 2000.

College of Communications, Institute of Communications Research

Major: Media Studies (High Honors)

TEACHING AND RESEARCH INTERESTS

Critical, cultural, and historical approaches to study of media; new media; social/cultural theory; media ethics; media law and policy; media history; cultural policy studies; popular music studies; political economy of communications; media literacy; democratic communications; social movements; qualitative methods

WORK EXPERIENCE

Lecturer, University of New Hampshire, August 2013-current.

Full-time lecturer teaching 3/3 course load in media studies. Taught upper-level seminars in “Digital Public Sphere(s),” “Global Media,” and “Environmental Communication” during the fall semester. Currently teaching “Digital Public Sphere(s),” “Race, Gender, and Class in the Media,” and “Sports, Media, and Society.”

Instructor, Young Harris College, August 2010-May 2012.

Full-time communication studies faculty member teaching 4/4 for two academic years at liberal arts college in North Georgia.

Graduate Part-Time Instructor, University of Colorado at Boulder, 2006-2007.

During my doctoral program, I taught two courses as Instructor of Record, a course on the music industry and the introductory media studies course.

Teaching Assistant, University of Colorado at Boulder, 2005.

Served as teaching assistant for a course examining media and culture in public life.

Teaching Assistant, University of Georgia, 2002-2004.

Served as the only teaching assistant to Dr. Kent Middleton and Dr. William E. Lee for a total of four semesters for required survey course in communications law and policy. I also graded exams and assisted Dr. William E. Lee for an undergraduate course addressing the social implications of emerging media technologies.

COURSES TAUGHT AND IN-PROGRESS

University of New Hampshire

“Environmental Communication” (CMN 696.08), Fall 2013.

“Global Media” (CMN 696.09), Fall 2013

“Digital Public Sphere(s)” (CMN 696.07), Fall 2013, Spring 2014.

“Gender, Race, and Class in the Media (CMN 567), Spring 2014

“Sports, Media, and Society (CMN 696.05), Spring 2014.

Young Harris College

“Media Advocacy and Democracy” (COMM 3840), Spring 2012.

“Media Ethics” (COMM 2998), Spring 2012.

“Introduction to Public Speaking-Honors” (COMM 1100), Spring 2012.

“History and Economy of Telecommunications” (COMM 3800), Fall 2011.

“Introduction to Human Communication” (COMM 1000), Fall 2011.

“Media Law and Policy” (COMM 3830), Spring 2011.

“Media Literacy” (COMM 2810), Fall 2010.

“Introduction to Public Speaking” (COMM 1100), Fall 2010-Spring 2012.

University of Colorado at Boulder

“Media, Research, and Popular Music” (JOUR 4861), Fall 2007.

“Contemporary Mass Media” (JOUR 1001), Fall 2006.

“Media and Public Culture” (JOUR 2011), Fall 2005.*

University of Georgia

“Emerging Media Technologies” (TELE 4450), Spring 2003.*

“Law of Mass Communication” (JRLC 5040), Fall 2002-Spring 2004.*

* Served as teaching assistant.

PUBLICATIONS

BOOK CHAPTERS

Terry, Joseph L. (2013). Intervening Policy: The Case of the Canadian Independent Music Industry. In Kevin Howley (Ed.), Media Interventions, Peter Lang Publishing.

BOOK REVIEWS

Terry, Joseph L. (2008). Review of The Resisting Music: Popular Music and Social Protest, ed. Ian Peddie; Empire of Dirt: The Aesthetics and Rituals of British Indie Music, Wendy Fonarow; Right to Rock: The Black Rock Coalition and the Cultural Politics of Race, Maureen Mahon. Social Movement Studies, 7(2), 209-212.

CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS

Terry, Joseph L. (2011). “A ‘Media Interventions’ Approach to Understanding Canadian Cultural Policy and Popular Music” presented to the Media Interventions Division, Cultural Studies Association Annual Conference, Chicago, IL, March 24-26.

Terry, Joseph L. (2010). “Building a Citizen-Oriented Cultural Democracy”: Alternative Cultural Policy Formation,” Roundtable Participant, Cultural Policy Studies Division, Cultural Studies Association Annual Conference, Berkeley, CA, March 18-20.

Terry, Joseph L. (2010). “‘Well-Funded Mediocrity?’: Examining the Criticisms of Grant Funding in the Canadian Popular Music Industry,” presented to the Cultural Policy Studies Division, Cultural Studies Association Annual Conference, Berkeley, CA, March 18-20.

Terry, Joseph L. (2009). “If ‘Culture is Ordinary,’ Why the Need for a Cultural Policy?,” presented to the Cultural Policy Studies Division, Cultural Studies Association Annual Conference, Kansas City, MO, April 16-18.

Terry, Joseph L. (2008). “Affirming Cultural Policies: Revamping Canadian Content Regulations in the Global Era,” presented to the 5th International Conference on Cultural Policy Research, Istanbul, Turkey, August 20-24.

Terry, Joseph L. (2007). “The Affirmation of Culture: Free Trade, Civil Society, and the Cultural Exception,” presented to the Union for Democratic Communications Conference, Vancouver, Canada, October 25-28.

Terry, Joseph L. (2007). “Canadian Popular Music Policy and the Montreal Indie Zeitgeist,” presented to the International Association for the Study of Popular Music-U.S./Canada Joint Conference, Boston, MA, April 26-29.

Terry, Joseph L. (2006). "Clap Your Hands, Say Flexible Distribution: The Popular Music Industry and its Digitally-Shaped Future, presented to the International Association for the Study of Popular Music Conference-UK/Ireland, Birmingham, England, Sept 1-3.

Terry, Joseph L. (2006). "Authenticity for Sale: An Analysis of World Music Label Websites," presented to the Popular Communication Division, International Communication Association Annual Conference, Dresden, Germany, June 19-23.

Terry, Joseph L. (2006). "Netting an Indie Niche: 'Not Lame' Powers Pop to the People, presented to the Union for Democratic Communications Conference, Boca Raton, FL, May 18-21.

Terry, Joseph L. (2005). "Rethinking Independence: Moving Away from Distribution in Delimiting the Major/Indie Divide in Popular Music, presented to the Mass Communication Division, National Communication Association Annual Conference, Boston, MA, Nov. 17-20.

Terry, Joseph L. (2004). "State of Independence? A Political Economic Analysis Questioning the Conceptualization of Independent Labels in the Popular Music Industry, 1980-2000, presented to the International Association for the Study of Popular Music-U.S. Conference, Charlottesville, VA, Oct. 14-17.

ADDITIONAL EXPERIENCE

Research Assistant, University of Colorado, Fall 2004-Spring 2008.
Assigned to work with several Journalism and Mass Communication faculty members to provide research assistance and support.

Visiting Research Fellow, Centre for Research on Socio-Cultural Change (CRESC), The Open University, Milton Keynes, England, July 17, 2006-Sept. 1, 2006.
Invited to conduct research and writing under the auspices of CRESC, a research center funded through the Economic and Social Research Council in the United Kingdom. Worked with CRESC fellow Dr. David Hesmondhalgh to develop and conduct cultural policy research within the UK.

Index Editor, Dr. Kent Middleton and Dr. William E. Lee (U. of Georgia), Summer 2003.
Hired independently by both professors to index the sixth edition of their textbook, The Law of Public Communication.

GRADUATE TEACHER PROGRAM

"Teaching Introduction to Mass Communication: Strategies, Advice, and Practical Tools to Improve Your Course." Journalism and Mass Communication Colloquium-Graduate Teacher Program Workshop, University of Colorado, March 2, 2009.
Invited to design and co-present a departmental colloquium and workshop with a panel of experienced graduate student teachers. The workshop focused on preparing SJMC graduate students to teach introductory courses within the department.

“The Trials and Tribulations of Designing Your Own Course for the First Time.” Monday Workshop Series, Graduate Teacher Program, University of Colorado, February 11, 2008. Invited to design and co-present a University-wide workshop with our departmental lead graduate teacher, based on my experience designing and teaching my own upper level course.

Worked toward completing the Graduate Teacher Certificate through the University of Colorado’s nationally-recognized Graduate Teacher Program. Certification includes attending 40 total hours of teaching workshops outside and within home department, two videotape consultations, a faculty evaluation, developing a teaching portfolio, and a final assessment.

HONORS AND AWARDS

Outstanding Professor Award (Presented by Senior Athletes), Young Harris College, Feb. 13, 2012.

Selected by graduating student athlete as faculty member who had greatest impact on her college success.

Summer Research Fellowship, University of Colorado at Boulder, Journalism and Mass Communication, Summer 2007.

Awarded $2,500 to conduct dissertation fieldwork in Toronto and Montreal, Canada.

Summer Research Fellowship, University of Colorado at Boulder, Journalism and Mass Communication, Summer 2006.

Awarded $3,000 to conduct fieldwork in London, England.

Graduate Assistantship, University of Georgia, 2002-2004.

Awarded two consecutive competitive assistantships as a M.A. student.

SERVICE

Academic Advisor, Young Harris College, 2011-12.

Served as the primary media communication academic advisor to juniors and seniors majoring in communication studies.

Faculty Advisor, Lambda Pi Eta, Young Harris College, 2011-2012.

Founder and first faculty advisor to the College’s chapter of Lambda Pi Eta, the National Communication Association’s undergraduate communication honor society.

Member, Ad hoc committee on Plus/Minus Grading, Young Harris College, 2011-12.

Due to my active role on the Standards and Scholarship Committee, I was selected by the Vice President for Academic Affairs to be one of four faculty members to review the implementation of plus/minus grading.

Member, Standards and Scholarship Committee, Young Harris College, 2010-2012.

A member of a College-wide committee focused on making informed, research-driven recommendations on various issues of academic standards and scholarships.

Faculty Tutor, Rhetorica: Center for Writing and Speaking, Young Harris College, Fall 2010. Served as a faculty tutor for public speaking during the Center's first semester on campus, as the centerpiece of the College's Quality Enhancement Plan for reaccreditation through the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

Chair, Cultural Policy Studies Division, Cultural Studies Association, 2008-2011. Founder and inaugural chair of a division of the Cultural Studies Association devoted to research in cultural policy studies. The first conference panels and meetings of the division were held at the CSA's 7th Annual Conference, April 16-18, 2009.

Manuscript Reviewer, Journal of Communication Inquiry, 2006-2010. Review manuscripts submitted for publication to JCI edited at the University of Iowa.

Doctoral Student Representative, Faculty Search Committee, Journalism and Communication, University of Colorado at Boulder, August 2007-March 2008. Selected to serve as the only doctoral student on the faculty search committee for the hiring of an assistant/associate professor in environmental journalism.

Departmental Representative, United Government of Graduate Students, Journalism and Mass Communication, University of Colorado at Boulder, August 2006-December 2007.

Guest Lecturer, Contemporary Mass Media (Journalism 1001), University of Colorado at Boulder, Fall 2006. Lectured on the impact of P2P file-sharing networks and the growing synergy between the popular music and information technology industries.

Guest Lecturer, Alternative Media (Journalism 4861), University of Colorado, Fall 2006. Led discussion concerning the impact of digital technologies on major and independent recording labels.

Orientation Co-Leader, University of Colorado at Boulder, Journalism and Mass Communication, August 2005. Served as orientation coordinator in planning a weeklong orientation to welcome new doctoral student class.

Co-President, Critical Media Studies Interest Group, Grady College of Journalism and Mass Communication, University of Georgia, August 2003-May 2004. Helped to facilitate coordination between faculty and graduate students through bi-weekly meetings to discuss relevant issues in critical/cultural media studies.

Student Judge, George Foster Peabody Awards, Grady College of Journalism and Mass Communication, University of Georgia, 2003. Served as a student judge for the news division of the annual George Foster Peabody Awards.

PROFESSIONAL MEDIA EXPERIENCE

Associate Analyst, Current Analysis, Inc., Sterling, VA, 2001–2002.

Produced timely industry analysis and established industry contacts in the intrusion detection, network management, and enterprise wiring closet switching markets. Analysis included product assessments, competitor assessments, market assessments, and competitive intelligence reports.

Research Associate, Current Analysis, Inc., Sterling, VA, 2000-2001.

Collected industry information and conducted Internet research working alongside industry analysts in a wide array of telecommunications and information technology markets. Assisted in the planning and development phase for a major consulting project with a Fortune 100 corporation.

Business Affairs Intern, Mammoth Records, Carrboro, NC, Summer 1999.

Assisted in drafting artist contracts, master use licenses, letters of direction, producer agreements, and various other legal documents. Contacted publishers and negotiated mechanical royalties for new albums containing samples and non-controlled compositions.

Intern, Black Park Management, Raleigh, NC, Summer 1998.

Assisted in operations of an artist management group working with five national popular music acts, including the top selling independent artist of 1993, The Connells. Answered incoming calls, processed merchandise orders, and reorganized shipping databases. Redesigned the official newsletter for The Connells Fan Club.

ASSOCIATION MEMBERSHIPS

Cultural Studies Association

International Association for Media and Communication Research

Union for Democratic Communications

REFERENCES

Andrew Calabrese, Ph.D.

Professor
Journalism and Mass Communication
University of Colorado at Boulder
1511 University Ave., 478 UCB
Boulder, CO 80309-0478
(303) 492-5374
andrew.calabrese@colorado.edu

Joshua Meyrowitz, Ph.D.

Professor and Chair
Department of Communication
Horton Social Science Center
University of New Hampshire
Durham, NH 03824-3586
(603) 862-3031
joshua.meyrowitz@unh.edu

Jay Hamilton, Ph.D.

Associate Professor
Grady College of Journalism and Mass Communication
University of Georgia
Athens, GA 30602-3018
(706) 542-3556
hamilton@uga.edu

Joy Goldsmith, Ph.D.

Assistant Professor
University of Memphis
212 Art and Communication Building
Memphis, TN 38152-3150
(901) 678-2565
joy.goldsmith@memphis.edu

Janice Peck, Ph.D.

Professor and Graduate Director
Journalism and Mass Communication
University of Colorado at Boulder
1511 University Ave., 478 UCB
Boulder, CO 80309-0478
(303) 492-2047
janice.peck@colorado.edu